Come share your story, life experiences and meet others who understand what it means to support a loved one living with, through and beyond cancer – in a safe, supportive environment where caregivers and cancer survivors can interact & learn from one another.

Cancer survivors and their caregivers often feel isolated and misunderstood, made even more true during the Coronavirus pandemic. This retreat offers fun distraction from stress through virtual games and activities during the retreat. When you join a Camp Mak-A-Dream retreat, you join an encouraging and positive community.
